

Bus Tour FAQ (last updated 5-13-2024)

- Registration includes lodging and meals.
- Registration deadline is June 30.
- Departing from Kearney, NE 7-29-24 at 8:00 A.M.
- 510 W Talmadge Rd, Kearney, NE 68845-7800 (This motel room is NOT included in your registration fee)
- Due to fixed costs there will be no refunds for canceled registrations.
- $300 double room occupancy; $400 single room occupancy
- Indicate Roommate Preference if you have one

Speaker/Location Information

Jay Fuhrer, Bismark, North Dakota

Jay is one of the leading teachers of soil biology and mimicking native rangelands with crop, insect and livestock diversity.

<http://www.notill.org/jay-fuhrer> and <https://menokenfarm.com/about/>

Dwayne Beck

Pierre, SD; <http://www.notill.org/dwayne-beck> and <http://www.dakotalakes.com/>

Menoken Farms

<https://menokenfarm.com/>

Dakota Lakes Research Farm

<http://dakotalakes.com/>

Jerry Doan, Sterling, ND—Black Leg Ranch

Located just 25 miles SE of Bismarck N.D., the historic Black Leg Ranch is home to both grass-finished cattle and buffalo. Black Leg Ranch has a variety of enterprises: the Copper Jewell Barn, three on-site lodges, a hunting enterprise, and the Black Leg Brewery.—

<https://blacklegranch.com/>

Jody Saathoff Memorial Fund

Jody Saathoff Memorial funds are also providing funds to support the NTOP 2024 Bus Tour. Jody served on the NTOP Board, worked for Arrow, and assisted Ray Ward with many soil health needs and general friendships.