

Darin and Nancy Williams Field Day

Speakers

Darin Williams, Host, Waverly, KS
Making the Economics of Soil Health Work

Candy Thomas, NRCS Regional Soil Health Specialist Soil Demonstrations - featuring rainfall simulator and slake tests see how management practices impact soil quality and profitability

Jacob Miller, 7M Ranch, Culbertson, Nebraska
Non-permanent livestock fencing and utilizing forage resources

David Brandt, Carroll, Ohio
Managing and utilizing cover crops; 30 years of cover crops, cash crops and soil health

Zack Louk, Natural Ag Solutions, Moran, Kansas
Utilizing cover crops for livestock and wildlife

Darin and Nancy Williams Farm
2293 26th Road
Waverly, Kansas 66871
Tuesday July 24, 2018

Agenda

- 8:00 a.m. - Registration
- 8:30 a.m. - Soils Demonstration
- 9:15 a.m. - Farm Demonstrations
  - Non-permanent Fencing
  - Managing and Utilizing Covers
  - Cover Crops and Poultry
  - Utilizing Covers for Livestock
- 12:00 p.m. - Lunch
- 1:00 p.m. - 30 Years of Soil Health
- 2:00 p.m. - Making Economics of Soil Health Work
- 3:00 p.m. - Break
- 3:30 p.m. - Utilizing Forage Resources
- 4:30 p.m. - Q&A

Register Now at www.notill.org
$40 registration fee includes lunch meal

Partners and Sponsors: No-till on the Plains, The Nature Conservancy of Kansas, Kansas Alliance for Wetlands and Streams, Natural Ag Solutions, Kansas WRAPS/EPA, Kansas Grazing Lands Coalition, Coffey County Conservation District, Kansas Water Office, Kansas Department of Agriculture, Kansas Rural Center, Kansas Association of Conservation Districts, Live Wire Fence Supply, Green Cover Seed, Farmers Business Network, K-Coe Isom, and Noble Research Institute.

